A LITTLE BIT ABOUT US

We are a brand new company that has started up a blog to give people an insight into our sister company, a design house that plans and designs weddings, styles for interiors and also completes larger interior design projects. We want to give people professional tips and advice, along with assistance throughout the whole planning process for brides and grooms who want to get a little bit more hands on and don't necessarily want a wedding planner.

We are looking to gain content for our 'real weddings look book' on the blog and would love all of those beautiful brides and dashing grooms to share with us their special day so we can share it with the world.

If you would like to submit a wedding you have photographed or your own wedding, please email submissions@houseofthree.co.uk

IMAGERY

We would love to feature your wedding images on our site, so that as newly weds, you can inspire the new brides (and grooms) to be and help assist them in planning their wedding.

For our 'real weddings look book' we would require between 20-50 images. If you can send more that would be great. We would accept a maximum of 100 images, which gives us more to choose from.

ALL THINGS LOVELY

Your images are beautiful and capture the magical moments of your day. We would like to showcase them and in turn inspire all those brides and grooms to be with how they can plan their dream day.

It's great to show a variety of images and so we suggest frames that capture the following:

- the venue – inside and out
- décor, styling and any general theming
- the brides attire & accessories
- the grooms attire & accessories
- flowers including bouquets, buttonholes, large decorative arrangements & table centres
- those important guests
- cake table or dessert station
- canape or food close ups
- first dance and speeches
- stationery including table plan, place settings & table names or numbers

*Of course we know that some of the above may not be appropriate to your wedding, but if you could give us as much variety as possible that would be fantastic. That way we can really get a feel for your special day.

SENDING YOUR IMAGES

The easiest way to send your photos is via Dropbox or We Transfer. They are both free up to a certain limit and means you can send the same quality of images as originally taken. If you don't know how to do it yourself, ask your photographer if they can send them for you.

At the moment we can only accept jpeg images.

Please make sure they are saved for web with a resolution quality of 60. Portrait images must be 1500px high x 1000px wide. Landscape images must be 1600px wide. We also require a Banner Image at 2100px wide and approximately 1000px high.*

Along with your images we would need to ask you to complete a questionnaire to assist with the feature content. This will help to inspire every one else and really help capture the special moments of your day.

*If you can't do this, then please send the original images and if we can, we may be able to edit them for you

TIME TO GET TO KNOW YOUR STORY

You are newly weds (5 years still counts as a newly wed) and so you are the most important people in helping to inspire future weddings. We therefore ask you if you could share with us all of those special parts of both your planning process and your day. This will include the bits that were hard (so we can write about easier ways), the bits that were easy and most importantly, your favourite and most special parts of the process.

We know time is precious and so we will take your words and add to them. We will create a feature that is between 500 & 1000 words for the blog. So please do tell us as much as you can. If there are any specific parts that are more important to you than others, let us know and we will do our absolute best to fit them in.
